Our New Triad Hindu Temple

A Temple that represents the rich and diverse architectural heritage of India.

Temple pilgrimages in India are a rich and aesthetic experience in addition to being spiritually fulfilling. Temples in each regional area reflect the architectural heritage and unique flavor of that region. Triad Hindu Temple's structure will showcase that rich diversity. Each elevation, front, right, left, and main Shikara/Gopuram, will represent different temple architecture styles of India: Southern, Northern, Eastern and Western India.

May this Temple be a paradise for those seeking inner peace, a sacred space that values and reminds us of our spiritual purpose and a true blessing to the entire community.

Let us reconnect with our cultural and spiritual roots, let this Temple be the best giving for our generations to come!

Panchamukha Shivalingam

A temple that has a unique Panchamukha Shivalingam as one of the presiding deity:

Na-ma-si-va-ya is the auspicious Panchakshari Mantra. Triad Hindu Temple is blessed to be the first temple in the USA that will have a Panchamukha Shivalingam as a presiding deity. The Panchamukha Shivalingam (five-faced Shivalingam) represents the five important aspects of Lord Shiva.

Tirumala Tirupati Venkatachalapathy

A temple that has a replica of the Tirumala Tirupati Venkatachalapathy deity:

Triad Hindu Temple will also have Lord Venkatachalapathy (Venkateshwara) as one of the presiding deity. The deity will be designed and sculpted by renowned Stahpathis (temple sculptors) and will be just a few inches shorter than the deity in Tirumala itself.

Agama Shastra is a rich and elaborate compendium of rules and guidelines for worship, temple building and spirituality. It plays a very important role in consecration and construction of holy places.

Durga Mata >>>
